Imagination writing exercise

Imagine you could time travel to any part of history, which part of history would you travel to? Ancient Egypt, Iron age Britain, Rome, Elizabethans, the Stone age? Or another exciting part of history. Can you write about what you think it would be like, who you might meet? The clothes you might wear, the food you might eat? And anything else that describes what you think the past was like?